MANY THANKS Words cannot express how much the outpouring of prayers and condolences during my dear husband's battle with dementia meant to me and my family. Food provided by organizations like the Catholic Daughters, Knights of Columbus, and our Bereavement Committee was such a beautiful expression of what makes our community of believers so special. We will not forget their kindness. When Ronnie became a Catholic, he told me he wanted to belong to something that made him a better person. Although he has always been a good person, he said something was missing. He chose our church because he felt at home there, surrounded by wonderful people. Their generosity and love was evident during his illness. The most precious statement from him was how he felt when he received the Eucharist. He said whenever he received communion, he felt like God was putting on an armor around him to protect him and he hoped that all our members believed the same way. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for making him feel special. Thank you, Francis, for bringing him the Eucharist to our home when he was unable to go to church. Thank you, Father Meade, Deacon Lee, & Robin Graham for helping him make his journey to heaven. Brenda Kaiser
